JAPADOG

Japanese style hotdog

Since 2005

一台のカートが世界へ

ON ST MARKS PL

Japanese couple started a hotdog cart business on Vancouver street 3 months after they moved to Canada in 2005. At the beginning, the couple couldn't afford to hire staff so they worked from the sunrise to the sunset everyday. Day by day people started to recognize their unique and flavorful hotdogs, and now staff joined JAPADOG team. Now we operate 4 carts and 1 restaurant around Vancouver area.

This is our dream to launch Japadog in New York. Our passion, anticipation and ambition all put into this project. Our mission is to share dream, happiness and have wonderful time with customers from all over the world.

Time Out New York

One of the newest of Chinatown's handful of Malaysian restaurants, Jaya offers mostly Malaysian food, plus some Chinese, Thai and Indian dishes. Start with the roti canal delicate Indian pancakes with a chicken-curry dipping sauce, or the lemongrass satay, grilled chicken or beef on skewers with peanut sauce. Main dishes such as Jaya cut ribs, wok charred in a soy ginger sauce. And spicy chicken curry, provide a tantalizing entree to this underappreciated cuisine. - Scott DeSimon

 The food here is so good. Admittedly, the atmosphere and service could use a little help, but we always stuff ourselves here and end up wishing there was room in our bodies for even more. And it's so affordable that it makes it worth fighting the crowds on Canal Street to walk there.
